

I truley enjoy K-Love. They provided valuable information on community events that are relevent to families. I believe one of the greatest services they provided is hope and insperation. There are thousands of indivdiuals who lean on this station for assistance in difficult times. This station serves as valuable resource for all members in our community.